14. All Participants during the Contest period after the qualifiers receive points on conditions, which are described below in this Terms and Conditions.
15. The calculation mechanism for the contest points is the following:

$$\text{Total Number of Points} = \text{Number of lots on closed trade}$$

Qualification:

The highest number of lots on closed trades on the 30th of April 2018.
Only trades that have a period of 5 minutes (time difference between the closing and opening of a trade) and above will be considered.

Preliminaries and knock out stages:

The highest number of lots on closed trades, at the end of every stage in the contest. Only trades that have a period of 7 minutes (time difference between the closing and opening of a trade) and above will be considered.

At the end of the Contest, 22:00 Friday, 29th June 2018, the Participant with the highest number of lots will be considered as the Winner proportionally, according to the number of Winners places. Accordingly, Winner of the first place of the Contest will be the Participant with the highest number of points. If there are two Participants with the same number of points, the last closed trades will be evaluated and the winner will be the one with the higher time difference between closed and open time.

16. If the Participant becomes a Winner and rejects it, then the Winning place will go to the other Participant with the highest number of Lots.

17. Rally Trade will contact within 3 working days the Winners by phone and email using the provided information. If the Winners were contacted one time by email and three times by phone without success, Rally Trade will name as Winner, the next Participant with the highest number of lots, in order.
